Gotcha.

All I have are regular desks and if they are all the standard height, I unfortunately do not have something to help them out on this request.

Sorry.

No, but it does need to be that height (35") and size. It will be for closing out at the end of each day and everyone will be standing around it which is why it needs to be that height and size. A desk is only 30" high and everyone will be banging their knees and shins into it.

I hope that helps!

Subject: FW: Surplus Packing Table?

Good morning.

Does it have to be able to hold 500 pounds?
We may have some desks that could possibly fill this request unless it has to hold a lot of weight.

Please advise.
